	If two or more teams have tied win-loss ratios they will be awarded a number of points based on the distance of their scores in a given round (measured by standard deviation) 6.1.2
	form a combined aggregate score. The teams with the highest combined aggregate scores will progress through. The procedure for determining this schedule will be:
6.1.2.1	Add all winning margins of each team to form an aggregate of margins.
6.1.2.2	Divide the previous result by the number of winning teams. This is the arithmetic average
0.1.2.2	(the mean).
6.1.2.3
6.1.2.4
6.1.2.5	Repeat step 6.1.2.3 for the second score, third score and so on until all scores have been used.
6.1.2.6	Add up all the results produced from step 6.1.2.4 until all numbers have been added up.
6.1.2.7	Divide the result in 6.1.2.6 by the total number of winning teams.
6.1.2.8	Take the square root of the result in 6.1.2.7. This is the standard deviation.
	In the event that the teams still remain tied, teams will be awarded negative points for 6.1.3	rounds that have been lost. The number of points deducted will be based on the distance of their scores in a given round (measured by standard deviation) from the average margin of that round.
	Should the teams remain tied after all other methods of deciding a winner have been
6.1.4	exhausted, a coin toss conducted by the Competition Director(s) will decide who progresses through.

9.4.5	In the event the highest placed Australian team is a losing quarter-finalist. The highest ranked Australian team according to the scoring methodology shall be deemed the Australian Champion unless only two Australian teams progress to the quarter-finals.
9.4.6	In the event only two Australian teams progress to the quarter-finals and both those teams fail to progress to the semi-finals, the Conference organisers shall host an Australian final between those two teams. The winner of this final shall be deemed the Australian Champion.
9.4.7	In the event the highest placed Australian team does not qualify for the quarter-finals. The highest ranked Australian team according to the scoring methodology shall be deemed the Australian Champion.
9.4.8	The Australian runner-up shall be the Australian team that progressed the second furthest into the elimination rounds. In the event two or more Australian teams would qualify to be Australian runner-up on this basis, the team ranked highest according to rule 6.1 will be deemed the Australian runner-up.
10. RELEASE OF C	DUESTIONS
10.1	Preliminary Round Questions
10.1.1	Questions for the Preliminary Rounds will be released on the ALSA or Conference website three (3) weeks prior to the start of competition.
10.1.2	ALSA Council will be notified on the same day via email.
10.1.3	Competitors will be asked to prepare a different question for each Preliminary Round.
10.2	The draw for the Preliminary Rounds will be released onto the ALSA or Conference website and emailed to the ALSA Council at the same time as problem is released three (3) weeks prior to the start of competition.
10.3	Final Rounds Questions
10.3.1	Problem questions for the Quarter Final will be released at the conclusion of the Preliminary Rounds.
10.3.2	Problem questions for the Semi Final will be released at the conclusion of the Quarter Final.
10.3.3	Problem questions for the Grand Final will be released at the conclusion of the Semi Final.
10.4	All questions must be specifically written for the Conference.
10.5	Every effort will be made to ensure that problems are constructed in a way that does not disadvantage or advantage participants from any particular jurisdiction.
11. RESEARCH AN	ND PREPARATION
11.1	All research and preparation for the rounds must be conducted solely by team members. Team members may receive general advice and assistance with respect to skills relevant to the competition prior to the release of the question. After the release of the question until the completion of the championship competitors may not receive any advice or assistance.
Penalty:	Any contravention of 11.1 may result in disqualification.
	Access to electronic materials such as laptops are forbidden. Mobile phones may be used only for the purposes of personal timekeeping.
Penalty:	Any contravention of 11.2 may result in disqualification
11.3	No one, including Faculty Advisers, may attempt to communicate in any way with any of the competitors during a round, from the beginning of the team's client interview session to the conclusion of that team's self analysis.
Penalty:	Any contravention of 11.3 may result in disqualification.
11.4	Subject to 11.3, the mere act of intended communication or intended receipt of information proscribed by this rule constitutes a breach of the rules, regardless of the substance thereof and regardless of whether initiated by a participant or by any other person.
11.5	If a team mistakenly receives material meant for the client they must report the occurrence immediately to the organisers who will decide on an equitable course of action. Failure to report this to the organisers will result in disqualification.

11.5.1	Innocent mistake is not a defence to a complaint based on this rule.
11.5.2	Casual exchanges related to the substance of the client interview are enough to constitute a breach under 11.3 or 11.4.
Penalty:	Any contravention of 11.5 may result in disqualification.
12. CLIENTS
12.1	Clients will be supplied by the Conference Team.
12.2	Clients must not be from either team's University.
	Clients will receive their materials at least one (1) hour before the commencement of that 12.3	round.
	Client materials will comprise the consultation situation and a detailed confidential
12.4	memorandum concerning the client's background and concerns.
12.5	Clients are to be advised that their 'performance' commences as soon as they step into the client interview.
12.6	Clients will be permitted to refer to their instructions whilst being interviewed.
	Clients will be asked to give their feedback to judges after each interview, outlining their 12.7	level of confidence in the team's handling of their situation and any other relevant comments.
13. DETAILS OF TI	HE ACTUAL COMPETITION
13.1	Each round should last for two sets of forty-five (45) minutes (one for each team).
	First, thirty (30) minutes of each set are devoted to a consultation with the client during 13.1.1	which competitors are expected to elicit the relevant information, outline the problem, and propose a solution or other means of resolving the problem.
13.1.2	There will be a warning one (1) minute before the end of the consultation.
13.1.3	Judges may grant an extension of time of up to five (5) minutes per team.
13.1.4	A competitor must stop speaking when asked to do so by the Judge.
	Penalty: Continuation of interview beyond 30 minutes without the Judge's express
Penalty:	permission after thirty (30) seconds have elapsed: one (1) mark for every minute or part thereof.
Penalty:	Penalty Continuation of self-analysis beyond 10 minutes after thirty (30) seconds have elapsed: one (1) mark for every minute or part thereof. Second, teams will have a UP TO fifteen (15) minute post-consultation period, make a 'fly on the wall' presentation to the judges. This is a reflective dialogue between you and your 13.2	partner, evaluating your performance, identifying the problems with the interview/client and your potential areas for improvement.
	Five (5) minutes where the competitors leave the room and privately prepare for their evaluation by the judges. The post-consultation explanation may summarise the interview, 13.2.1	indicate the scope of the legal work to be undertaken, and state the legal issues that should
(Not applicable)	be researched. Explanation of the position or attitude taken by the competitors may be useful.
	Third, the judges should then provide the team with a critique of the team's handling of the 13.3	consultation and post consultation periods. The critique should last no more than ten (10) minutes. Clients must not be present during the critique.
	Team members are free to decide how they will divide their work, but both competitors
12.4	must interview the client as a team and their plan will be judged accordingly. The students
13.4	may wish to explain their strategy and teamwork to the judges during their post-consultation explanation.
13.5	During the interview and post-consultation explanation, the team may use books, notes, and
13.5	other materials.
13.7	If a competitor is more than five (5) minutes late for the commencement of the round.
	Two (2) marks per five (5) minutes or part thereof.
