2. The membership fee payable to become a Social Member will be determined at the sole discretion of the Committee at a special general meeting or the annual general meeting.

2.22. Liability of Members

1. No member is liable to contribute towards the payments of the debts and liabilities of the Society or to the costs, charges and expenses of the winding up of the Society. Any liability is limited to the amount, if any, unpaid by the member in respect of membership of the Society.

2.23. Resolution of internal disputes

1. Disputes between members (in their capacity as members) of the Society, and disputes between members and the Society are to be referred by the Committee to an appropriate third party for mediation.
 - a. An example of a mediator to consider may be the independent Advocacy Officer provided for by the University.
 - b. The Committee may nominate a member of the Society to be a mediator.
 - c. The Committee may not nominate a party to the dispute as a mediator.
2. Before moving to mediation, the parties to the dispute must meet and discuss the matter in dispute, and, if possible, resolve the dispute themselves within fourteen (14) days after the dispute comes to the attention of all of the parties.
3. If the parties are unable to resolve the dispute at the meeting or if a party fails to attend that meeting, then the parties must, within ten (10) days organise a meeting in the presence of a mediator chosen and agreed to by both parties, or the mediator referred to them under clause (1).
4. The mediator, in conducting the mediation, must:
 - a. Give the parties to the mediation process every opportunity to be heard;
 - b. Allow due consideration by all parties of any written statement submitted by any party;
 - c. Ensure that natural justice is accorded to the parties to the dispute throughout the mediation process; and;
 - d. Must not determine the dispute.
5. Should the matter not be resolved after mediation, or should one of the parties refuse to attend mediation, and/or should the President feel it necessary, the matter is to be referred to UOW Administration, as per any relevant UOW grievance policies and procedures.

6. A matter may be also be referred to a community justice centre for mediation in accordance with the Community Justice Centres Act 1983 (NSW).
7. If the mediation process does not result in the dispute being resolved, the parties may seek to resolve the dispute in accordance with UOW rules, the Act or otherwise at law.
8. At least seven (7) days before a mediation session in accordance with the rules of this section is to commence, the parties are to exchange statements of the issues that are in dispute between them and supply copies to the mediator.

2.24. Duties of Members

1. All members are expected to act in accordance with the Uniclubs Code or Conduct in addition to the University of Wollongong Code of Conduct.
2. Failure to act in accordance with the requisite codes of conduct may result in disciplinary procedures being taken in accordance with part 2.25 of this Constitution.

2.25. Disciplining of Members

1. A complaint may be made to the Committee by any person that a member of the Society:
 - a. Has persistently refused or neglected to comply with a provision or provisions of these rules; or;
 - b. Has persistently and wilfully acted in a manner prejudicial to the interests of the Society.
2. On receiving such a complaint, the Committee:
 - a. Must cause notice of the complaint to be served on the member concerned;
 - b. Must give the member at least fourteen (14) days from the time the notice is served within which to make submissions to the committee in connection with the complaint; and;
 - c. Must take into consideration any submissions made by the member in connection with the complaint.
3. The Committee may, by resolution, expel the member from the Society or suspend the member from membership of the Society if, after considering the complaint and any submissions made in connection with the complaint, it is satisfied that the facts alleged in the complaint have been proved.

4. If the Committee expels or suspends a member, the Vice President (Administration) must, within seven (7) days after the action is taken, cause written notice to be given to the member of the action taken, of the reasons given by the Committee for having taken that action and of the member's right of appeal under rule 2.25.
5. The expulsion or suspension does not take effect:
 - a. Until the expiration of the period within which the member is entitled to appeal against the resolution concerned; or;
 - b. If within that period the member exercises the right of appeal, unless and until the Society confirms the resolution under rule 2.19(5), whichever is the latter.

2.26. Right of appeal of disciplined Member

1. A member may appeal to the Society in general meeting against a resolution of the Committee under rule 11, within seven (7) days after notice of the resolution is served on the member, by lodging with the Vice President (Administration) a notice to that effect.
2. The notice may, but need not, be accompanied by a statement of the grounds on which the member intends to rely for the purposes of the appeal.
3. On receipt of a notice from a member under clause (1), the Vice President (Administration) must notify the Committee which is to convene a general meeting of the association to be held within twenty eight (28) days after the date on which the Vice President (Administration) received the notice.
4. At a general meeting of the association convened under clause (3):
 - a. No business other than the question of the appeal is to be transacted;
 - b. The Committee and the member must be given the opportunity to state their respective cases orally or in writing, or both; and;
 - c. The members present are to vote by secret ballot on the question of whether the resolution should be confirmed or revoked.
5. If at the general meeting the association passes a special resolution in favour of the confirmation of the resolution, the resolution is confirmed.

Part 3 – The Committee

3.1. Powers of the Committee

1. The Committee is to be called the committee of management of the Society and, subject to the Act, the Regulation and these rules and to any resolution passed by the society in general meeting:
 - a. Is to control and manage the affairs of the Society in accordance with its objects;
 - b. Is to control and manage the finances and property of the Society;
 - c. May exercise all such functions as may be exercised by the Society, other than those functions that are required by these rules to be exercised by a general meeting of members of the Society; and;

4. No Committee member shall hold more than one (1) elected position on the Executive.
5. Two Committee members shall not jointly hold any Executive positions.
6. Each member of the Committee is, subject to these rules, to hold office until the conclusion of the Annual General Meeting following the date of the member's election, but is eligible for re-election.
7. In the event of a casual vacancy occurring in the membership of the Committee, the Committee may appoint a member of the association to fill the vacancy and the member so appointed is to hold office, subject to these rules, until the conclusion of the Annual General Meeting next following the date of the appointment.

3.3. Elections of the Executive and the Committee

1. Committee members will be elected by and from the Academic Members. One Social Member may be elected to the positions of IT Officer by the Academic Members.
2. Should there be vacant positions after elections, the Committee may open up nominations to Social Members, at their discretion.
3. Nominations of candidates for election as office-bearers of the Society or as ordinary members of the committee (except for First Year Representatives):
 - a. Must be made in writing, signed by two members of the Society and accompanied by the written consent of the candidate (which may be endorsed on the form of the nomination); and;
 - b. Must be delivered to the President of the Society at least seven (7) days before the date fixed for the commencement of the voting period.
3. If insufficient nominations are received to fill all vacancies on the committee, the candidates nominated are taken to be elected and further nominations are to be received at the Annual General Meeting.
4. If insufficient further nominations are received, any vacant positions remaining on the Committee are taken to be casual vacancies.

5. If the number of nominations received for office bearer or committee positions is equal to the number of vacancies to be filled in each category, then the persons nominated are taken to be elected.
6. If the number of nominations received for any office bearer or committee position exceeds the number of vacancies to be filled, a ballot is to be held.
7. The ballot for the election of office-bearers and ordinary members of the Committee is to be conducted prior to the Annual General Meeting of the Society for a period of not less than five (5) consecutive days in the Academic Calendar of the University.
8. The ballot is to be conducted in accordance with the Society's Election Regulations, and the declaration of the results of the ballot to be accepted at the Annual General Meeting of the Society.
9. A separate election will be held for the South West Sydney Campus Representatives. This is to run at the commencement of each academic year. In this instance:
 - a. South West Sydney Campus academic members may nominate themselves for election by completing the form prescribed by the committee, and submitting it by the due date and time and via method prescribed by the committee;

 - b. Should the Ex-Officio Position be unable to chair the Discipline and Grievance Committee; the chair shall be filled by a member of the Committee, chosen by a simple majority of the Committee.
 - c. The Chair of the Discipline and Grievance Committee shall provide a report of the outcome of the committee's decision to be made available to the Committee following the decision.
 - d. The Discipline and Grievance Committee should make a recommendation for the Committee's consideration.
 - e. The Discipline and Grievance Committee may convene to meet on matters in relation to Committee misconduct and Member misconduct.
 - f. Matters for which the committee may decide may include, but are not limited to;
 - i Internal Committee or Society disputes;
 - ii External Society disputes; and
 - iii Any other matters which the Committee deem appropriate.

3.6. Disciplinary Action and Removal of Committee Member

1. The Committee must review the position of an ordinary member of the Committee or a sub-committee member where:
 - a. In the case of a Committee member, the person is absent from three (3) Committee meetings without leave of the Committee; or
 - b. In the case of a sub-committee member, the person is absent from four (4) Committee meetings without leave of the Committee; or
 - c. The person has failed to fulfil their role or has failed in their duties to the Society; or
 - d. The person, or an associated party of the person, misuses funds of the Society.
2. It is the duty of the President to observe that all committee members and sub-committee members are performing their roles and bring it to the attention of the Committee if they are not.
3. In reviewing the position of any Committee member or sub-committee member after rule 3.6 has been invoked, the Committee must be contemporaneously supplied with an explanation of the circumstances by the infringer before the Committee takes further action, which may include:
 - a. Requesting the resignation of the Committee member or sub-committee member;
 - b. Dismissing the Committee member or sub-committee member by a motion carried by Special Majority of the Committee;
 - c. Retaining the status quo if the Committee views the explanation as worthy of granting an exception.
4. The Society in general meeting may by resolution remove any member of the Committee from the office of member before the expiration of the member's term of office and may by resolution appoint another person to hold office until the expiration of the term of office of the member so removed.
5. If a member of the Committee, to whom a proposed resolution referred to in clause (4) relates, makes representations in writing to the Vice President (Administration) or President (not exceeding a reasonable length) and requests that the representation be notified to the members of the association, the Vice President (Administration) or President may send a copy of the representations to each member of the Society. Or, if the representations are not so sent, the member is entitled to require that the representations be read out at the meeting at which the resolution is considered.

3.7. Resignation

Any Office Bearer or Ordinary Member of the Committee may resign by giving notice in writing to the Vice President (Administration) and/or President, whereupon their position will become vacant.

3.11. Delegation by Committee to Sub-committee

1. The Committee may, by instrument in writing, delegate to one (1) or more sub-committees (consisting of such member or members of the association as the committee thinks fit) the exercise of such of the functions of the committee as are specified in the instrument, other than:
 - a. This power of delegation, and

- b. Function which is a duty imposed on the committee by the Act or by any other law.
2. A sub-committee will be officially created by a simple majority of the Committee at a committee meeting.
3. A sub-committee will be officially dissolved after the completion of the specified task, by a simple majority of the Committee at a committee meeting.
4. A sub-committee may be officially dissolved before the completion of the specified task(s) by a special majority of the Committee at a committee meeting.
5. A function the exercise of which has been delegated to a sub-committee under this rule may, while the delegation remains unrevoked, be exercised from time to time by the subcommittee in accordance with the terms of the delegation.
6. A delegation under this section may be made subject to such conditions or limitations as to the exercise of any function, or as to time or circumstances, as may be specified in the instrument of delegation.
7. Despite any delegation under this rule, the Committee may continue to exercise any function delegated.
8. Any act or thing done or suffered by a sub-committee acting in the exercise of a delegation under this rule has the same force and effect as it would have if it had been done or suffered by the Committee.
9. The Committee may, by instrument in writing, revoke wholly or in part any delegation under this rule.
10. A sub-committee may meet and adjourn, as it thinks proper.
11. Every sub-committee member shall report on a regular basis to the Committee.
12. The sub-committee members will have the responsibility of planning and coordinating their specified project.
13. The sub-committee members will have the responsibility, in conjunction with the President, of representing their specified task to any parties with a legitimate interest.
14. The sub-committee members may recruit to themselves informally whatever assistance they may at any time need to complete their specified task.

Part 4 – Meetings

4.1. Executive Meetings

1. The Vice President (Administration) will call an Executive meeting at the request of any five (5) members of the Society, or at the behest of the Executive.
2. In Executive meetings all voting rights are reserved to the Executive.
3. The Vice President (Administration) will ensure that not less than five (5) business days' notice is given to Executive members, unless all Executive members agree to waive this requirement.
4. The Executive will meet at least twice each University session.
5. A quorum for an Executive meeting will be half of the Executive.
6. The Vice President (Administration) will ensure that notification of the meeting will be sent to each Executive member and any affiliated body (if appropriate).

4.2. Committee Meetings

1. The Vice President (Administration) will call a Committee meeting at the request of any five (5) Academic and/or Social Members of the Society, or at the behest of the President or members of the Executive.
2. In Committee meetings all voting rights are reserved to Committee members and any Project Group members.
3. A quorum for Committee Meetings will be not less than ten (10) members or one half of the membership of the Committee whichever is less.
4. The Committee must meet at least three times in each period of twelve (12) months at such place and time as the Committee may determine.
5. Additional meetings of the Committee may be convened by the President or by any member of the Committee.
6. Oral or written notice of a meeting of the Committee must be given by the Vice President (Administration) or President to each member of the committee at least forty eight (48) hours (or such other period as may be unanimously agreed on by the members of the committee) before the time appointed for the holding of the meeting.

7. Notice of a meeting given under clause (6) must specify the general nature of the business to be transacted at the meeting and no business other than that business is to be transacted at the meeting, except business, which the Committee members present at the meeting unanimously agree to treat as urgent business.
8. No business is to be transacted by the Committee unless a quorum is present and if, within half an hour of the time appointed for the meeting, a quorum is not present, the meeting is to stand adjourned to the same place and at the same hour of the same day in the following week.
9. As an alternative, if the President deems the business to be urgent, any item from the adjourned meeting may be voted on as an E-Motion.
 - a. The Committee must be given at least forty eight (48) hours to vote or make submissions on any E-Motion.
 - b. The mover and seconder of any E-Motion must submit written support to be included in the call for votes and submissions.
 - c. The President or relevant Executive Member must make a submission to be included in the call for votes and submissions.
 - d. The Vice President (Administration) must take all reasonable steps to ensure the Committee receives notice of the E-Motions.
 - e. A quorum for an e-motion will not be less than ten (10) members or one half of the membership of the Committee whichever is less.
10. If at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour of the time appointed for the meeting, the meeting is to be dissolved.
11. At a meeting of the Committee:
 - a. The President or, in the President's absence, an officer bearer is to preside.
 - b. If the President or one of the office bearers are absent or unwilling to act, such one of the remaining office bearers or ordinary members of the Committee as may be chosen by the members present at the meeting will preside.

4.3 Voting and decisions

1. Unless otherwise specified elsewhere in these rules, questions arising at a meeting of the Committee or of any sub-committee appointed by the Committee are to be determined by a majority of the votes of members of the committee or sub-committee present at the meeting.
2. Each member present at a meeting of the Committee or of any sub-committee appointed by the Committee (including the person presiding at the meeting) is entitled to one vote but, in the event of an equality of votes on any question, the person presiding may exercise a second or casting vote.
3. The Committee may act despite any vacancy on the Committee.
4. Any act or thing done or suffered, or purporting to have been done or suffered, by the Committee or by a sub-committee appointed by the Committee, is valid and effectual despite any defect that may afterwards be discovered in the appointment or qualification of any member of the Committee or sub-committee.
5. An E-motion may be conducted where the Committee decides by motion passed by majority that a specific subject matter may be voted on by E-motion at a later date. An emotion of this kind shall be carried out in the same manner as described at clauses 4.2.9a-4.2.9d.

4.4. Conduct of Committee Meetings

4.4.1. Preliminary Matters

1. There is to be a formal agenda prepared for each meeting which must be published for review by the committee at least two (2) days prior to the scheduled committee meeting.
2. Submissions for the agenda are to close at a time to be determined by the Vice President (Administration), provided that the deadline is publicised with at least seven (7) days notice.
3. Minutes of each meeting must be provided to members of the committee no later than five (5) days after the meeting

4.4.2. Standing Orders

1. These standing orders will be applicable to all General Meetings and Executive meetings, and will be construed subject to the constitution.

2. Meetings will, subject to the presence of a quorum start at the time set out on the notice, and will subject to the discretion of the meeting, continue until all business on the agenda is disposed of.
3. If no quorum is present within thirty (30) minutes of the starting time set out on the notice, the meeting will lapse, and, subject to any resolution previously passed, the Vice President (Administration) will fix the time of the next meeting. All business on the agenda of the lapsed meeting will be included on the agenda of the next meeting and will take precedence over new business.
4. At the beginning of each meeting the agenda will be read.
5. The agenda will be dealt with as first priority in meetings. Any business not in the agenda will be dealt with after the completion of the consideration of the matters contained in the agenda.
6. A matter not contained in the agenda may be given priority over matters in the agenda by reason of a motion passed by special majority.
7. In a meeting only one (1) person may speak at a time.
8. The Chair will be responsible for the maintaining of a speaking list for anyone wishing to speak on an issue.
9. Motions will be presented at the meeting verbally and shall be recorded in the minutes.
10. Should an amendment be moved on a proposal before the proposal is put to a vote, the proposal will only be amended with the consent of the proposer of the original motion.
11. Should this consent be withheld a vote will follow in the un-amended proposal.
12. If the un-amended proposal passes the vote, the issue is resolved. If the proposal does not pass then the proposal is automatically amended in accordance with the suggested amendment and put once more to the vote.
13. When the vote results in a deadlock the Chair has the casting vote.
14. Voting by proxy must be specific to a particular issue, in writing, and give particulars of the decision desired.
15. There will be no voting by general proxy.

16. Any member desiring to speak will raise their hand and when called upon by the Chair will address the Chair. If two or more members do so simultaneously, the Chair will call upon the member who first caught the eye of the Chair.
17. Except in Committee, no member other than the proposer of a motion or an amendment will speak to it until it has been seconded. A motion or amendment lapsing for want of a seconder will be recorded in the minutes as having lapsed for want of a seconder.
18. A motion or amendment before the Chair will not be withdrawn except by its mover and by eave of the meeting. No motion will be withdrawn while any amendment is under discussion or after any amendment has been adopted.
19. When an amendment is before the Chair, discussion will be confined to that amendment. No further amendment will be proposed until the amendment before the Chair has been disposed of.
20. The Chair will, as far as practicable, call on speakers for and against a motion or amendment alternatively, subject to the right of the seconder to speak immediately after the mover.
21. The mover of a motion will have a right of reply following any discussion on that motion. This right of reply will conclude the debate on that issue.
22. Subject to clause (21) if two consecutive speakers put forward the same view in relation to a motion or amendment, and there is no one opposed, or, in the case of a motion no amendment has been proposed, the motion or amendment will be put without further debate.
23. Any member may raise a point of order, which will be open to discussion. The point must be raised at the time the alleged irregularity occurred.
24. An explanation or contradiction will not constitute a point of order.
25. The Chair will determine points of order.
26. Any member disagreeing with the Chair's ruling on a point of order may move dissent. The Chair will then vacate the Chair and such motion will be put forthwith without debate.
27. If the Chair feels that adequate discussion has taken place on a point, the Chair may move that the motion be put to the vote. The Chair's motion will conclude discussion.

28. Each member of the Committee is entitled to one vote on each motion raised at the meeting.
29. All motions shall be determined by a majority of votes.
30. Voting shall be by a show of hands unless the Committee decides otherwise.
31. The Chairperson shall have a casting vote if equal votes are recorded on a motion.
32. A member may at any time put to the Chair; "That the speaker be no longer heard" or, "That the speaker be heard for a further limited period only". Such motion, except the closure motion or a motion dealing with the speaker's time, will be moved while a speaker has the floor. The Chair will rule on the point of order.
33. A member may move "That the meeting be now adjourned". The Chair will rule as with all points of order.
34. Standing orders (1) to (29) or any one of them may be suspended by a special majority of those present. A motion to this effect will be open to debate.
35. No member will reflect on the vote of a meeting, except on a motion for the rescission of any resolution previously adopted.
36. Notwithstanding anything contained herein, any decision made by a validly constituted meeting will not be void by reason only of a departure from these standing orders which was not detected till after the decision had been made.
37. Any matters not dealt with in the above standing orders will be governed by the customary procedure at meetings.

4.5. General Meetings

1. The Vice President (Administration) will call a General meeting of the Society within twenty one (21) days when:
 - a. Requested by petition of not less than ten (10) members or one half of the membership of the society, whichever is less, such petition outlining the business to be dealt with; or
 - b. Requested by the Executive.
2. The Vice President (Administration) will ensure that at least fourteen (14) days notice is given to members of a General Meeting.

3. In a General Meeting, all voting rights for all members of the Society, regardless of position, will be equal.
4. Notice of all General Meetings will be forwarded to the Faculty and any affiliated body at least fourteen (14) days prior to the meeting.
5. Notice of all General Meetings will be posted on University notice boards as well as the Society notice board, located near the Law faculty office or on the Society Website, and/or such other sites as nominated by the committee.
6. Meetings will be held on a weekday, during session, on campus.
7. A quorum for a General Meeting will be not less than twelve (12) members or one half of the membership of the Society, whichever is less.
8. Minutes of all General Meetings will be forwarded to the the members of the society via the Society's Facebook page Faculty and any affiliate within 14 days of the meeting.
9. The Executive will implement any resolutions approved by a simple majority of members present at a General Meeting.
10. In the event of an issue needing resolution before the next scheduled General Meeting the Executive will have power to resolve the question at an Executive meeting.

4.6. Annual General Meetings

7. The AGM must be called to occur before the 1st Sunday of December each year

Part 5 Elections

5.1. Conduct of Elections

1. All Academic Members will have one equal vote each in society elections, except for the case of elections held purely to elect first year representatives, where all first year Academic Members will have one (1) equal vote each.
2. An Election will be held once or more per year to elect persons to the Executive and to the Committee.
3. Elections will be decided by simple ballot with candidates running as individuals and not as part of a formal ticket.
4. Elections will be the responsibility of the President, or a Returning Officer
5. The Returning Officer shall be the Immediate Past Executive Member serving as ex-officio where possible, taking into account contactability and any conflict of interest, for example this member cannot be the Returning Officer if they intend to run for a position themselves. Where the Immediate Past Executive Member cannot serve as the Returning Officer, the President shall appoint someone to this role on the approval of the Committee, prior to the election.
2. Notice of an upcoming election will be provided to members at least two (2) weeks in advance through as many mediums as reasonably possible, but specifically including posters, advertisements and class announcements.
3. Nominations for positions in either the Executive or the Committee are to close one (1) week before the first day for voting.
 - a. The Returning Officer may choose to conduct the elections via paper ballot or via electronic voting such as an online voting platform. The latter will be subject to the logistical ability to carry out the elections and the ability to abide by privacy considerations set out by the University.
4. In the event of insufficient nominees for the positions offered, vacant positions are to be filled by appointment at the will of the newly elected committee.
5. The committee meeting immediately following the election will have as part of the agenda, consideration of appointments to fill vacant positions.

6. The General Meeting following the election will be a meeting of review in which the outgoing Executive will be required to give a summation of their years activities to the Society and in particular to the incoming Executive.
7. In the event of a member of the Executive standing down or retiring from a position the vacancy will be filled by means of a new General Election.
8. In the event of a Committee position becoming vacant, the vacancy will be filled by appointment by the current Executive in consultation with the Committee.
9. Successful candidates shall take office at the conclusion of the Annual General Meeting of that year or any other General meeting at which the election results are confirmed.

5.2. Annual General Elections

1. Nominations shall be open for at least one (1) week.
2. The elections shall be held during the second (2nd) semester of the academic year on dates to be determined by the President.

5.3. Casual Vacancies

1. The Committee shall decide whether or not to hold a by-election for the vacant position.
2. The Committee may appoint one (1) of its members to fill the vacant position in a caretaker capacity, until the next election or until a suitable candidate is found.

Part 6 Finance

6.1. Finance

Society Bank Account(s)

1. All funds of the University of Wollongong Law Students' Society shall be deposited into the society's bank account at the National Australia Bank, Wollongong Campus Branch; unless
 - a. The club is located on a different campus to Wollongong; or
 - b. An alternate account has previously been approved by Uniclubs.
2. All payments from the society account must be paid by card after being approved in accordance with this Constitution.

3. A minimum of two (2) society members shall be signatories to any bank accounts held in the society's name.
4. All funds of the society where not paid directly to the society's bank account must be deposited into the society's bank account no later than two (2) working days after receipt.
5. The society will conduct its financial business through a General Purpose Internet Banking Account. Responsibility for this account shall, on behalf of the Society, be vested with the Vice President (Finance). Only the Vice President (Finance) shall be charged full access to the Internet Banking Account and shall be the only person with a bank card. The President must have access to internet banking for the sole purpose of approving withdrawals of funds.
6. If the Society chooses to conduct its business through a General Purpose Internet Banking Account, all transfers made to accounts external to the accounts owned by the Society may be protected by SMS Security messaging. The Vice President (Finance) is to have their mobile phone number linked with the bank account for this purpose.
7. If a new Vice President (Finance) is appointed to the role pursuant to the Constitution (for any reason), the outgoing Vice President (Finance) must carry out all steps necessary to ensure that the control over the Society's General Purpose Internet Banking account is conferred to the new Vice President (Finance) as soon as possible.
8. In addition to a General Purpose Internet Banking Account, the Society may choose to operate a Savings Account. The Savings Account shall be linked to the General Purpose Internet Banking Account. However:
 - a. No monies shall be paid directly out of the Savings Account to any account other than the general purpose Internet Banking Account. If funds contained within the Savings Account are required for use by the Society, they must first be transferred to the General Purpose Internet Banking Account and then transferred or otherwise withdrawn from the General Purpose Internet Banking Account for the Society's purposes; and
 - b. No monies shall be paid directly into the Savings Account from any account other than the general purpose Internet Banking Account. All funds must first be placed into the General Purpose Internet Banking Account and then transferred to the Savings Account, subject to Rule 6.1.8.
9. Society monies may be moved between the General Purpose Internet Banking Account and the Savings Account by the Vice President (Finance) provided it is reasonable to do so. In determining reasonableness, consideration must be given to the anticipated use of the Society's funds in the future.
10. With unanimous assent from the Executive, the Vice President (Finance) may place or withdraw funds on a term deposit provided it is reasonable to do so. In determining reasonableness, consideration must be given to the anticipated use of the Society's funds in the future.
11. Any member of the Executive request a statement showing either:
 - a. The current bank balance; or

- b. Any transaction history that is reasonably available, the Vice President (Finance) is required to provide the Executive member this information by email within three (3) business days.

- 12. Non-compliance with Rule 6.1.10 will place the position of the Vice President (Finance) under review in accordance with the procedures adopted under Part 3.6.

Petty Cash

- 12. The Society may choose to keep a Petty Cash tin.
- 13. If the total sum in the Petty Cash tin exceeds $100.00, the excess must be banked in the Society's bank account(s).
 - 13.a All petty cash must be recorded.

Society Payment Transactions

- 14. Retrospective release of funds must be preliminarily agreed to by the Committee in a method determined by the VP Finance.
- 15. All payment transactions under $100.00 can be approved by any single member of the Executive, provided that documentation of the transaction is submitted to the Vice President (Finance) either before, or as soon as practicable after, payment is made. These payments may be made by way of cash, cheque, transfer or other banking means used by the Society, subject to Part 6.1.
- 16. All Society related payment transactions between the value of $100.00 and $1000.00 can be approved by unanimous assent of the Executive, whether that assent is given in an Executive meeting or otherwise. This approval applies to direct payments by the Society to external parties only. Notwithstanding this Rule, the preferred method of approving Society payment transactions is by way of the process adopted in Rule 6.1.14 and the process adopted by this Rule should primarily be invoked only when it is unreasonable to comply with the process in Rule 6.1.14.

Reimbursement Payments

- 17. Subject to Rule 6.1.15 and 6.1.16, reimbursement for payments made by a Committee member will only be made when:
 - a. An adequate source document pertaining to the transaction has been produced to the Vice President (Finance) as provided in clause 19 (a) and (b); and

- b. A Committee resolution approving the reimbursement has been passed.
18. Subject to Rule 6.1.15 and 6.1.16, any payment made by a Committee member who does not satisfy the requirements in Rule 6.1.17 will not be reimbursed for their payment(s).

Any person seeking reimbursement for any expenses incurred, subject to clause 14 and clause 17, must apply to the Committee for reimbursement and also provide an appropriate source documents no later than three (3) months from the date at which the expense was incurred.

Recording Payment Transactions

20. All payment transactions are to be evidenced by a source document. A 'source document' includes:
- a. Tax invoices; and
 - b. Receipts of payment.
21. A record of all source documents must be maintained by the Vice President (Finance), including on email or saved onto the Society's' Google Drive Folder.
22. Uniclubs has the right to audit the society's financial records when alerted about any issues or complaints.

Cash to be Deposited

23. All funds received in cash by the Society are to be deposited into the Society's bank within two (2) business days.

2. Voting of Committee Positions

1. This regulation governs the process of selecting Committee members to available positions following a general election for multiple positions.
2. Voting is based on the following principles:
 - a. Both elected candidates on the incoming Committee and outgoing Committee members are entitled to vote.
 - b. Each Committee member will fill one position. Where there are fewer Committee members than positions to be filled, candidates may fill multiple positions.
 - c. Each Committee member may nominate for any position, and may nominate for alternative positions even after they have been tentatively selected to a position.
 - d. Committee members shall not be compelled to disclose the positions they intend to nominate for.
 - e. Committee members should be assessed for each position separately based on their ability to execute the role and fulfil any duties associated with that position.
 - f. As Committee members may nominate for more than one position, the order in which positions are voted on is inherently irrelevant.
 - g. All ballots shall be secret.

- ii. The person may relinquish any but the most recently determined position;
 - iii. The Committee may vote to redeem a particular position to be reopened.
- 7. Once all positions have been filled and all Committee members have been selected for positions, the Returning Officer shall declare the voting of committee positions closed, whereupon Committee members who are tentatively selected to positions become elected to those positions.
- 8. The following holds:
 - a. Decisions made by the Returning Officer or their agent shall be final.
 - b. The Committee may pass by special majority a motion to overrule any decision made by the Returning Officer or their agent, whereupon the role of Returning Officer becomes vacant.
 - c. Where the role of Returning Officer becomes vacant, the Committee must elect a person who is not a Committee member to assume the role of Returning Officer.
 - d. Voting of Committee positions shall not proceed while the role of Returning Officer is vacant.
